

Diversity Lecture Series & DVD Signing

Add Color: How Diversity Triumphalism in Sports, Entertainment, and Advertising Support the White Savior Complex

Wednesday, November 12th, at 3 PM
Marshall Student Center, room 2709

The Diversity Lecture Series, sponsored by the Office of Diversity, Inclusion & Equal Opportunity is designed to deepen awareness of issues of diversity in higher education for USF faculty, staff, and students.

Please join the USF Office of Diversity, Inclusion & Equal Opportunity for the Diversity Lecture Series with Christopher M. Boulton, Ph.D., co-producer of Not Just a Game: Power, Politics & American Sports.

Dr. Boulton is an Assistant Professor of Communication at the University of Tampa. His research uses qualitative methods to analyze media at the level of text, audience, and industry. His writing engages with the intersection of race and class and has appeared in The Communication Review, the International Journal of Communication, and The Routledge Companion to Advertising and Promotional Culture. Dr. Boulton's latest film is a collaboration with the Media Education Foundation entitled Not Just a Game: Power, Politics, and American Sports. DVDs of the film will be made available for purchase after his talk.

USF is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action/Equal Access Institution. For disability accommodations contact Dr. Devona F. Pierre at 813-974-3971 or dfpierre@usf.edu, within five days of the event. For additional information please also contact Dr. Pierre.
